Dear Dr. Van Campenhout,

Your application to conduct the study entitled, ICT mediated knowledge transfer in Uganda: What works?, has been reviewed and approved by IFPRI's Institutional Review Board. The study meets the criteria for expedited review procedures as set forth in the code of federal regulations (45 CFR 46.110 Category 7) and presents no more than minimal risks to human subjects. Proper consent requirements have also been met. The IRB will file all documents related to this study under the project number listed above. An IRB file number for indexing purposes may be sent to you later under separate cover.

This approval is for the period of one year. If you wish to continue this study beyond that time you must submit an application to continue along with the instruments/documentation 6 weeks in advance of the expiration date listed above. Should any changes become necessary (i.e. procedures, methodologies) or be made or added to this study, you must immediately notify the IRB. No activity should commence without IRB modification approval.

As a reminder the IRB requires that all staff directly working with human subjects in research complete IFPRI'S CITI ethics training course. This letter indicates that the project complies with the IFPRI IRB's ethical guidelines. In cases where local approval is needed, it is the responsibility of the researcher to obtain this approval and comply with local guidelines. Please keep the IRB advised of this.

We wish you all the best in your research efforts. If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact Olivette Burton, IFPRI IRB Coordinator via phone or the email address copied on this correspondence.

Sincerely,
Eduardo Maruyama
IRB Chair
